Future Topics Survey

Rank 1, 2, and 3 and make dots by any others that you think would be interesting (guideline: dot ones which you would rather have than just more time to work on your websites).

1. Using javascript libraries (or: More Bang for your Javascript Buck)

2. How to HTML forms

3. How to store internet passwords (in the unlikely event that you ever need to program a system to do so)

4. Page Rank: how Google search works

5. How to set up a wiki

6. Introduction to learning a computer programming language

7. Performance engineering: making your website fast

8. Case study: the ESP Website

9. Managing a website project using git

10. Internet engineering communities: Github, StackOverflow, and good internet behaviour

11. How to use a command line text editor

12. Shiny HTML5 features

13. User Interface/User Experience design

14. How to do nasty subversive things on the internet (and how to protect yourself)

15. Public key encryption

16. Fancy application level protocols: BitTorrent and Onion Routing.

17. Software politics and open source

18. Something else? If there's another awesome idea you have, put it here: